

Pablo Canevari Award for Research and Conservation

NOMINATION FORM

Pablo Canevari, a former WHSRN Director, is remembered for his extraordinary dedication to and passion for the conservation of shorebirds throughout his career and life. Likewise, this Award in his honor recognizes and supports exemplary work in the field of shorebird conservation by an individual or organization from Latin America. This Award of US$2,000 is offered every two years by Manomet.

Please complete this nomination form, saving it with the year and the name of the nominee (e.g. "CanevariAward_2022_Vega.doc."), and send it electronically to whsrn@manomet.org

TYPE OF NOMINATION (mark an "x" by one): _____ Individual _____ Organization

Nominee's Complete Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Telephone: _____ E-mail: _____

Website: _____

If nominee is an individual, please also include the following:

Organization/Affiliation: _____

Title or position: _____

If nominee is an organization, please also include the following::

Name of Leader: _____

Title or Position: _____

NOMINATION SUBMITTED BY:

Your Complete Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Telephone: _____

E-mail: _____

Organization/Affiliation: _____

Title or Position: _____

Nominee's Name: _____

What is the nature of the work with shorebirds that the nominee has accomplished? Please include the dates of work, its locale, background, and products/results.

What is the importance or value of the nominee's work for the conservation of shorebirds? Include details of the benefit(s), advance(s), and/or difference(s) made.

How has the nominee's work been shared with other researchers or organizations, and what has been its value to them? Include the name(s) of the beneficiary(ies), the improvement(s)/advance(s), and plans for the future as a result.